

Muzoon Almellehan

Inspirational Women

Muzoon fled Syria with her family and lived in refugee camps for 3 years. She saw how many girls were being taken out of school early to get married. She campaigned door to door at the camp, asking parents of girls to keep them in school for longer.

Muzoon is an ambassador for Unicef. She started a petition, asking World Leaders to fund education for Syrian children.